The quality of child care has a direct impact on a child's ability to learn, to build healthy relationships, and to become the best they can be. The critical decision of where to place their child is often difficult and confusing for parents. Because the quality of child care and a positive future for our children depends on parents having tools necessary for making informed choices for their family, the Department of Human Services is helping parents with this very important decision through Tennessee's Child Care Report Card System.

Under Tennessee's Child Care Report Card System new QRIS, every licensed child care agency must undergo an annual quarterly evaluation and post a report score card of the results. Agencies are required to post their report score card with their renewal license where parents can clearly see them inside the agency. The Report Score Card system is mandatory provided to for all licensed providers
